

If I need to know what the weather or traffic situation is like at a time other than rush hour, and am paying for a service that will provide this information, what is the problem?